Over 50 Halloween-themed games are now available on Core, courtesy of the Spooky Jam. From wholesome to terrifying, the quality of these experiences belies the fact that they were made in a few weeks (or less)! Of all the spooky entries, a few stood out as exceptional and deserve a callout:

“Halloween Celebration” Winner: Trick or Treat Town by PunkerellaSummers and Booradley

Gather candy to upgrade and decorate your house! This adorable town is brimming with colorful characters and tons of detail, making it a perfect location to enjoy a festive Halloween atmosphere.

Honorable Mentions: Rave Yard Tower Defence is the first of its genre on Core, Burton's Diorama is simply gorgeous, Gold Rush has a wonderfully wild-west theme, and Halloween Food Fight is a seasonal take on classic arena combat.

“Haunted Abodes” Winner: Hunger Conquer by Arudo

Slink under kitchen tables and around carcasses to escape the chef in this asymmetric side-scroller with a unique aesthetic and great blend of survival horror and capture and hold gameplay mechanics.

Honorable Mentions: One Night at Darvos was a close second place with its polished reimagining of a classic horror game, Lights Out is wonderfully tense and atmospheric, and Awakening Chapter 1 stands out for its narrative-based approach.

“Twisted Fairytales” Winner: Soul Exchange Chapter 1 by LaKwaai

SOUL EXCHANGE

You awaken in the bowels of a castle with no knowledge of why. Uncover the twisted secrets of the realm in this explorative brawler with a gorgeous style.

Honorable Mentions: Cookie Cutter's aesthetics captivate, Inbetween has a great environment, as does Fae Fearann Faeded Realms, and Flowery Frolic's jumpscare is, oddly enough, enjoyable.

“Sci-Fi Horror” Winner: Core Collapse by XRStudio

Wander through the halls of an abandoned space station to uncover the horrors of a twisted experiment in the dead of space.

Honorable Mentions: Something Aboard provided an intriguing (albeit short) experience, and Us Robots was an interesting minimalist take on the social deduction genre.

Best Jumpscare Award: Lights Out by Cerberus Games

A tense, atmospheric experience where you are tasked with the seemingly simple investigation of an abandoned home. You should experience this one yourself, so we won't spoil it any further — turn off the lights, put on some headphones, and immerse yourself in horror!

Best Remix Award: Gold Rush by JasonCdesign

Old-west-meets-Halloween is an aesthetic we never knew we needed until now! This seasonal update to an existing game, centered around the tried and tested “payload escort” mechanic, is sure to bring some screams of joy.

Thanks To Everyone!

Congratulations to the winners and thanks to everyone who participated. For the new creators who joined Core through the contest, we are honored to welcome you to the community! As always, we will have more contests coming up soon, so stay tuned! And for Core’s players, what are you waiting for? Jump into these winning games now!
